ABOUT OUR JUDGE

Duncan Busuttil (Berseydale - Malta)

My lifelong passion for dogs began 25 years ago with my first dog, a German Shorthaired Pointer, whom I initially trained and used for hunting quail and woodcock. This early experience sparked a profound appreciation and lasting love for Gundogs, especially pointing breeds, which then shaped my future involvement in the world of dogs.

After marriage, I acquired my first Pointer from the UK, marking the beginning of a dedicated and fulfilling journey in the breed. Since then, my involvement with Pointers and Gundogs has deepened, enriched by active participation in dog shows, training my own dogs preparing them to hunt, and breed preservation.

My judging career now aligns closely with the breed standards and guidelines provided by the Judges Education Programme (JEP). I have achieved level 2 in quite a few number of breeds. As expected, mostly are in the Gundog group but I am also interested in other breeds, so I also reached this level in breeds in the working and hound groups. With ample practical experience, I am now on the path towards awarding Challenge Certificates (CCs) in my favourite breed, the Pointer.

To date, I have had the privilege to judge at various esteemed open shows across the UK, including Liverpool, Cheshire, and Scotland, predominantly focusing on Gundog breeds. These appointments have not only strengthened my judging capabilities but have also broadened my understanding and appreciation of breed types, and conformation.

I was also lucky enough to have been given the opportunity to judge the Junior and Adult Handling classes last June in Cheshire, where I could feel and experience the enthusiasm of the future generation of dog handlers. I have also been given the privilege to judge The Southern Pointer Club's open show next March.

My commitment as a judge is to uphold breed standards, ensure fair and unbiased assessment, and contribute positively to the sport and breed communities I so much cherish.

Use of Electrical Equipment at Shows

The Royal Kennel Club is becoming increasingly concerned at the amount of electrical equipment being used by exhibitors at shows, including hair dryers and hair straighteners and other grooming devices.

Electrical equipment should not be brought to shows unless absolutely necessary. In rare instances where it might be required, it should be PAT tested and permission sought from the secretary of the show before it is used.

The Royal Kennel Club has also been informed of recent instances of exhibitors commandeering certain areas of a venue in order to have access to power points so as to use electrical grooming equipment. This is totally unacceptable and particularly unfair on the breeds whose allocated areas have been cramped because of this selfish behaviour.

Security at Shows

In light of recent events the Royal Kennel Club would like to issue a reminder to all Societies of the importance of security at dog shows.

The Royal Kennel Club understands that due to the nature of dog shows and the quantity of paraphernalia exhibitors bring it would be extremely difficult for show organisers to take on the issue of security alone, therefore we would reiterate the advice being given by the Police and security services, that everyone in the UK should remain vigilant and this applies to those organising and taking part in dog shows.

The importance of exhibitors feeling that they and their dogs are safe when attending a show cannot be underestimated. We would therefore remind you of the importance of the need for show organisers and exhibitors to remain mindful of potential dangers and that all visitors generally need to be vigilant and alert.

Furthermore the society should provide robust notification informing exhibitors of where to report to should they see anything suspicious or of concern, and of the evacuation procedures in place.

WELFARE OF DOGS

Anyone whose dog is entered at a Royal Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not put a dog's health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise. Breach of Royal Kennel Club Regulations in this respect may be referred to the Board for disciplinary action under Royal Kennel Club Rules and Regulations. The use of pinch collars, electronic shock collars, or prong collars, is not permitted at any show licensed by the Royal Kennel Club. This shall apply at the venue or within the precincts of the show.

- 6 Any objection by an individual related to an infringement of these Regulations must be made in writing to the Show Secretary at his/her office before the close of the Show & the individual must produce evidence of identity at the time of lodging the complaint.

DOGS IN VEHICLES ON HOT DAYS

Your dog is vulnerable and at risk during hot weather and the Royal Kennel Club offers the following guidance to help guide you through the do's and don'ts travelling to and whilst at KC licensed events.

- When travelling to a show please take a moment to consider whether the route to the show is on a busy holiday route, and leave earlier to avoid increased time in traffic jams.
- If your vehicle is not air-conditioned seriously consider whether travelling to the show is a good idea at all.
- The vehicle should be as fully ventilated as possible, and plenty of stops should be taken, with lots of water available to drink.
- Ensure your dog is not sitting in full sunlight. There should be plenty of free flowing air around the dog.
- When at the show, never leave your dog in the vehicle.
- Keep the dog in the shade - take your own shade for example a large umbrella and always have plenty of water available to drink so your dog stays well hydrated.
- Avoid your dog taking part in unnecessary exertion, or from standing in exposed sunlight for extended lengths of time.

Remember, if you feel hot your dog is very likely to feel much hotter and dehydrated, and this could lead to dire results. Please look after your dog's welfare.

WARNING: IF YOUR DOG IS FOUND TO BE AT RISK FORCIBLE ENTRY TO YOUR VEHICLE MAY BE NECESSARY WITHOUT LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGE CAUSED.

Right to Refuse Entries: Exhibitors/Competitors are reminded that show societies have the right under Royal Kennel Club Regulation to refuse any entry.
